

MURDER under the MISTLETOE

It is Christmas in 1899 and the Prime Minister, Robert Gascoyne-Cecil, is hosting a lavish party. Spirits are high at the turn of the century, commerce and politics are doing well. It is also 7 years since the infamous Jack the Ripper was last active. But is everyone who they say they are? And has the Ripper really finished his work?

Friday 5th December - £65.00 per person, to include a festive drink on arrival, an immersive murder mystery experience and a 3 course set dinner

THE MENU

starter

Brie and cranberry tartlet, Granny Smith apple salad, balsamic reduction

Duck liver, orange and port parfait, apple chutney, toasted local sourdough

main

Roast Pembrokeshire turkey, smoked bacon wrapped chipolatas, sage and onion stuffing, rich turkey gravy

Classic nut and cranberry roast, roast potatoes, creamy mash, gravy

All served with a panache of seasonal vegetables

dessert

Christmas pudding, creamy brandy sauce

Strawberry and white chocolate cheesecake, white chocolate sauce, strawberry sorbet

M
MURDER 57

CAWDOR
LLANDEILO

H
Harmony Event Design

Note: Pre orders for this event must be sent by Wednesday 26th November.